

2012 Women to Watch Award | Nomination Criteria

Awards will be given in two categories, Established Leaders and Emerging Leaders, as defined below. It should be noted that evidence of every item listed is not required for consideration, but nominees should have made significant contributions in at least two of the criteria listed below.

Experienced Leaders

Defined as one who has advanced to a higher level or leadership position within an organization. Titles include, but are not limited to, partner, owner, elected official or appointee, executive, etc.

1. Authorship of articles
2. Major or unique contribution to the profession
3. Public and/or community service
4. Mentoring other professionals*
5. Improvement to the workplace

*More heavily weighted than other criteria

Emerging Leaders

Defined as a professional who has made a significant contribution to the profession and her community, but who has not yet reached the highest levels of advancement.

1. Public and/or community service
2. Demonstration of leadership
3. Contribution to the profession
4. Creation and implementation of unique initiative(s)
5. Involvement with alma mater or other local colleges and universities.

Please provide supporting documentation as evidence as accomplishments. This may include letters of recommendation from supervisors, peers, students, community organizations, etc. Resumes are not required, but are strongly recommended.

Deadline for submitting nominations is February 17, 2012. Winners will be selected by the Women to Watch Awards Committee and recognized at the Women to Watch Awards event, on May 23, 2012.

Questions?

For more information about the nominations process, membership status, requirements, or nomination categories, contact Liz Julin with the CSCPA at (303) 741-8607, (800) 523-9082, ext. 107 or by email at ljulin@cocpa.org.